SLS Las Vegas Joins the Nevada Resort Association Membership base grows to 72 resorts in Nevada

LAS VEGAS – The Nevada Resort Association today announced the addition of SLS Las Vegas® to its membership. The Association now represents 72 resorts across Nevada.

“As a significant employer and economic driver on the north end of the world-famous Las Vegas Strip, SLS Las Vegas has a distinctive perspective to share,” said Virginia Valentine, president of the Nevada Resort Association. “We look forward to working with their leadership on the key issues facing our industry today and sharing how their work along with that of all our members contributes to our quality of life in Nevada.”

SLS Las Vegas is an all-encompassing resort and casino with more than 95,000 square feet of flexible meeting space and a collection of acclaimed restaurants, bars and entertainment venues. The resort features a 60,000 square foot gaming floor and employs more than 1,700 team members.

“SLS Las Vegas is excited to join its sister property, Grand Sierra Resort, as a member of the Nevada Resort Association,” said Andrew Diss, SLS Las Vegas director of government affairs. “Joining the Association will give our 1700+ team members a stronger voice in the major issues affecting the tourism and gaming industries. We look forward to joining our colleagues that are already members of the Association in maintaining Nevada’s place as a top tourism destination.”
