LAS VEGAS – The Nevada Homeless Alliance will host its Fall 2026 Project Homeless Connect on Wednesday, November 4, bringing together community organizations, service providers and volunteers to connect individuals and families experiencing homelessness or housing instability with essential resources and support.

The event will take place from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the World Market Center in Las Vegas. Attendees will have access to a wide range of free services, including medical care, housing assistance, employment resources, legal aid, mental health services, clothing and more.
